ACTIVITIES REVIEW

Lotus Photo Shooting 2012 (2012錦田荷花攝影日) on 10 June 2012

"If you snooze, you'll lose."

Had our members not been propelled by the passion for photography, waking up at 4:30 a.m. to go to Kam Tin for the early morning light at 5:30 a.m. would otherwise be a daunting task.

Our lot was not in lack of early birds. Their reflections on the ripples on the pond mingled with those of the lotus leaves, which intermittently swayed in the morning breeze.

Crispy clicks sounded. Friendly morning greetings were exchanged.

The Kam Tin Country Club is a neatly kept place. The horseshoe-shaped Lotus pond is not huge but there is ample space to move round.

Shooting the lotus is great photographic practice. It evokes thinking in composition, exposure techniques and the expression of motion.

Sun Life Stanley International Dragon Boat Championships (赤柱國際龍舟錦標賽 2012) on 23 June 2012

The Sensational Stanley Spectacular

Shooting in this greatest annual event in Stanley was both challenging and exciting. Daring the sand, the sea and the crowds with their photographic gear, the HKMAPS members climbed, knelt, squatted and even half-immersed in water to get to the best possible positions. The abundance of photographic opportunities was astonishing.

The HKMA Dragon Boat Teams competed impressively with zeal and courage. Please refer to the photographs in the reportage on those events. With every beat of the drum, every raising of the paddles and every plunge in unison, excitement rose.

The beach was absolutely chock-a-block with people. It was time for super-exhibitionistic costumes and make-ups. The occasion was just like a big bustling carnival.
